REPORT:

A lecture on the relevance of Indian Scriptures was organised by Yoga and Meditation Club of Nagota Bagwan. The students of B.A, Ist and B.A.I^{II} got enlightened with the spiritual heritage of Indian Scriptures, Prof. Swaran Lata who is teaching Sanskrit in the College enlightened students with her knowledge of not only Sanskrit language but also the relevance of Shiksha scriptures. She advised students to read these scriptures which are very helpful in the holistic development of human beings. She talked about Vedas, Puranas, Bhagwad Geeta and Ramcharitmanas. She shared her views about beautiful Indian history, and how we can sustain this heritage. These scriptures talk about real-world matters such as finance, occupation, warfare, human values, social conduct and management which we can learn by reading and practise them in our life. They also provide solutions to these matters.
