Induction Program Organized by Commerce Department

Dated: 04/09/2024

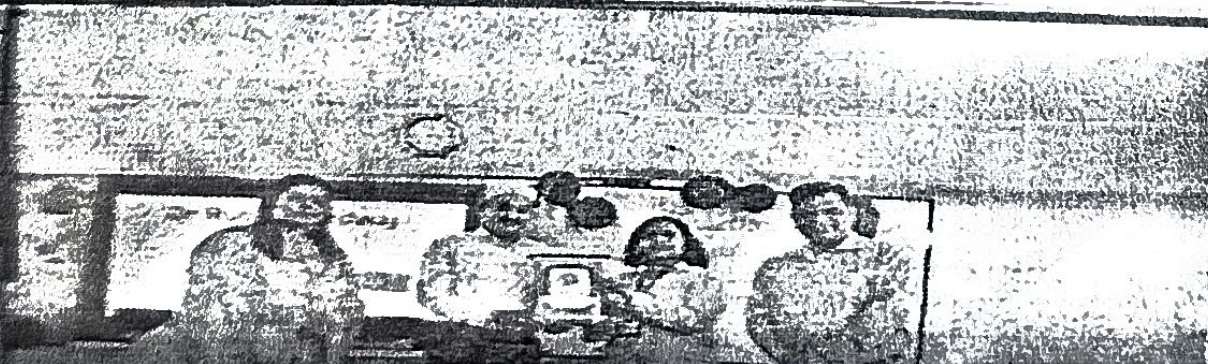

The Commerce Department of Government College, Nagarota Bagwan organized an induction program for the newly admitted students. The objective of this program was to familiarize the students with the college environment and provide information on important topics for their academic and personal development.

The chief speaker of the program, N.N. Sharma discussed in detail the importance of "Communication Skill". He told that in today's era, effective communication skills are extremely important not only in professional life but also in personal relationships. N. N. Sharma underlined the importance of various aspects of good communication skills to the students such as clarity, confidence, choice of right words, and body language. He explained to the students through practical exercises and examples how effective communication increases self-confidence and helps them achieve their goals.

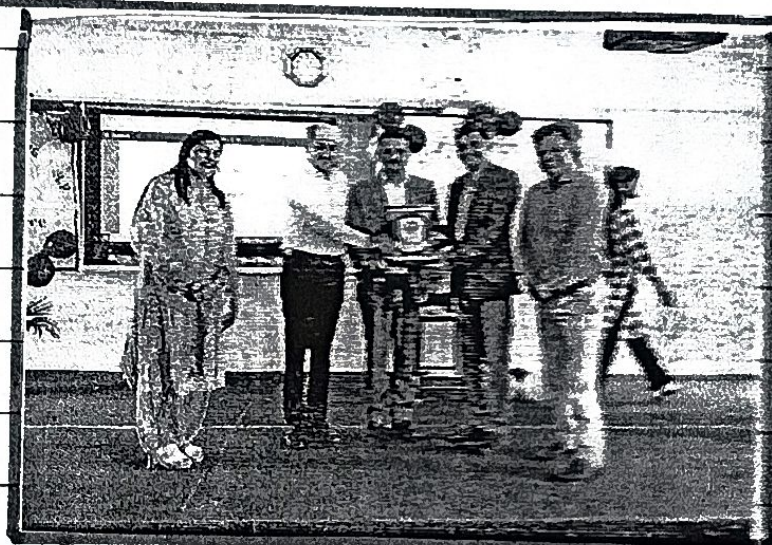

Along with this, Block Medical Officer, Ruby Bhardwaj from the Health Department also discussed the importance of healthy lifestyle in her session. They discussed topics like balanced diet, regular exercise, mental health, and hygiene. Ruby Bhardwaj said that it is very important to adopt healthy habits at a young age as it has a positive effect not only on physical but also on mental health. While making the students aware, she said that a healthy body and mind are the keys to higher education and success in life. Professor D.S Shastri of Physics Science from Central University Himachal Pradesh told the children about the useful importance of life.

At the end of the program, the students expressed their views and asked questions to the speakers. The students appreciated the program and called it inspirational for themselves.

This program gave them the necessary guidance and encouragement to enter a educational life. College Principal Dr. Surendra Soni congratulated the college co-lecturer Dr. Manjeet Singh, Dr. Rajeev Kumar and Dr. Sonika for the successful organization this program on behalf of the Commerce Department and expressed gratitude.
