From the Principal's Desk...

“Education is not the learning of facts,
but the training of the mind to think.”

Albert Einstein

Welcome to Government College Nagrota Bagwan.

As the Principal of the College, I feel honoured and privileged to be part of an educational institution where every stakeholder is a learner and every day is an opportunity to learn and discover new things. We look at ourselves as a community of learners, where everyone learns including our teachers, parents & staff. I believe in keeping high standards of teaching with an absolute commitment to strive to understand and improve the educational process, using team strategies, while wholly cantering on student achievements. Our staffs employ two diverse strategies- Love and Logic to foster a positive learning environment for all our students. Love and Logic may seem like two contrasting forces. While love helps nurture trusting relationships, where students feel respected, appreciated and loved by the teachers, logic helps develop in student's personal responsibility, self-control; good decision makes skills, self-confidence, and character building with high moral values. Students learning involve and revolve around an effective partnership between home & college. The stronger the partnership, more the students will benefit. Learning is social, and in this context we encourage the students to come and speak to us in person for a more detailed perspective. I look forward to working with all of you in the college where parents are welcome at any time, students are engaged in meaningful learning and the staff members are valued and appreciated for their efforts.

Coordinator's Message

Department of Business Administration

Dear Students

Science and civilisation have made rapid strides especially in recent times and as a result, the world has gone a transformation. But behind all the progress of mankind is the human factor, the human capital – the skills, education and experience which are invaluable and irreplaceable. Several studies into economic growth in advanced countries have confirmed the importance of investment in human capital.

A country's physical capital is of course important ----- natural resources, minerals, dams, forests and industrial establishment. But about three fourths of the income even of advanced countries comes from human skills and the ability of the people, not from land, property rights and other permanent assets. Man exploits these assets through his capacity to create wealth and it is the capacity that makes all the difference between a rich, prosperous and progressive country and a poor and backward one.

India is rich and yet it is poor. It is rich in natural resources, mineral wealth, varied assets, rivers, forests, etc. It has a massive population also. There are lakhs of skilled workers too, but they constitute a small minority. There is no dearth of human capital in this country. As a result of the inadequate utilization of human resources, there is unemployment, illiteracy, malnutrition and poverty. Therefore, the human factor needs to be closely studied in relation to India. Mere numbers contribute very little to real human capital. It is education and training that count. Similarly, expenditure on education and training and improvement of health and research needs to be increased.

It is not only the inadequacy of attention and expenditure on developing human capital that needs to be remedied but it is the all-round development of the human personality, through sustained and concerted efforts that can help ensure the country's salvation. Mahatma Gandhi has said: "There are no two opinions about the fact that intellect rather than riches will lead. Character will count at the crucial time.

I welcome you in the portals of this institution.

मैं आज यह शपथपूर्वक घोषणा करता/करती हूँ कि मैं चिट्ठे तथा किसी भी प्रकार के नशीले पदार्थ, शराब, तंबाकू एवं अन्य हानिकारक नशों का सेवन नहीं करूंगा/करूंगी।

मैं यह भी प्रतिज्ञा करता/करती हूँ कि अपने परिवार, मित्रों और समाज को नशे के दुष्प्रभावों के प्रति जागरूक करूंगा/करूंगी तथा स्वस्थ और नशामुक्त जीवन अपनाने के लिए प्रेरित करूंगा/करूंगी।

मैं समझता/समझती हूँ कि नशा व्यक्ति, परिवार और समाज के लिए हानिकारक है। इसलिए मैं सदैव नशे से दूर रहकर अच्छे आचरण और जिम्मेदार नागरिक के रूप में जीवन व्यतीत करने का प्रयास करूंगा/करूंगी।
