Project Title: Establishment of a Candle Making Unit for Diwali festival under the "Earn While You Learn" Scheme

Name of the Institution	GC Nagrota Bagwan
Department	Department of Botany
Name of Activity	Scented candles Sale for Diwali Festival
Date	27 October 2026
Venue	Botany Department
Organized Under	Earn While You Learn Scheme

1. Introduction

The Earn While You Learn scheme aims to provide students with practical skills, entrepreneurial experience and opportunities to generate income while pursuing their education. As part of this initiative, a small-scale candle-making unit can be established on the college campus.

Candle making is a simple, creative and commercially viable activity requiring comparatively low initial investment. Students can be trained to manufacture attractive and useful candles such as French candles, water candles and mold candles using wax, colours, fragrances, wicks and different molds. The candles produced has been sold by organizing candles exhibition cum sale within the college campus on the occasion of Diwali.

2. Objectives

1. To provide students with practical training in premium scented candle making.
2. To develop skills in product design, packaging and marketing.
3. To establish a small income-generating activity in the college campus.

3. Description of the activity:

The candle-making unit was established on the college campus under the Earn While You Learn Scheme. Students participated in the preparation and arrangement of materials required for candle-making, followed by the production and display of candles suitable for the Diwali festival.

The candles were attractively displayed for exhibition and sale in the college campus. The exhibition provided an opportunity for faculty members and students to appreciate the creativity and efforts of the students and purchase the products for the festive season.

The activity helped students understand the practical aspects of small-scale production, product presentation, marketing, customer interaction, and sales management. It also highlighted the importance of skill-based education and entrepreneurship in promoting self-reliance among students.

4. Outcomes of the Activity

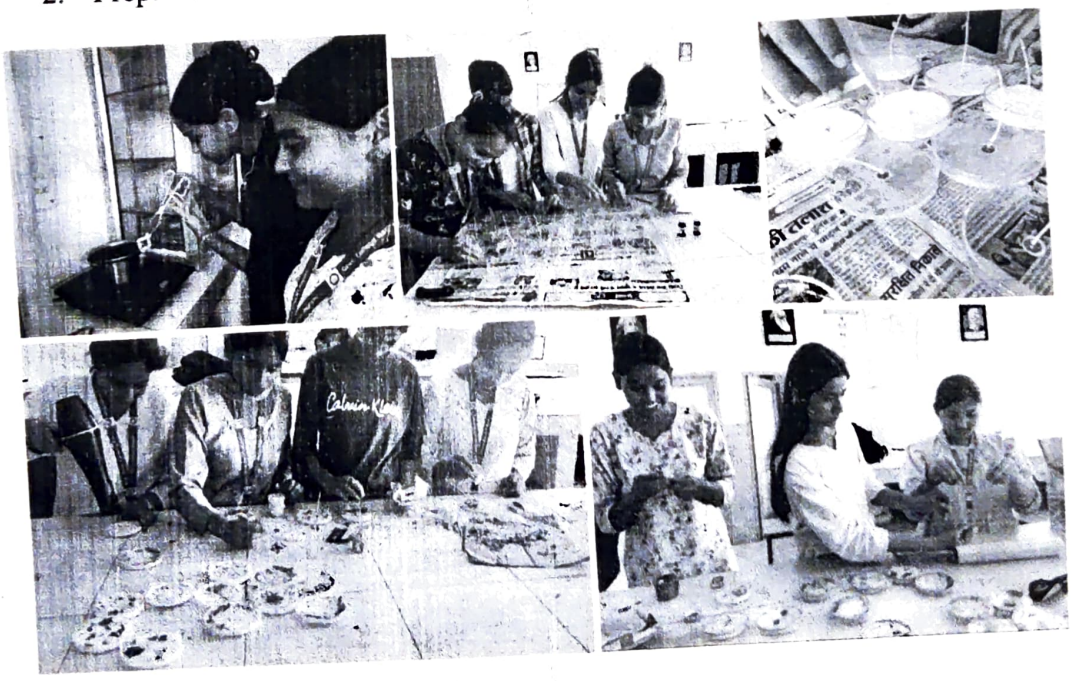

The exhibition-cum-sale served as a valuable learning experience for the participating students. It encouraged teamwork, creativity, confidence, and entrepreneurial thinking. The activity also provided practical exposure to the process of converting a creative skill into a potential source of income.

5. Photographic Documentation

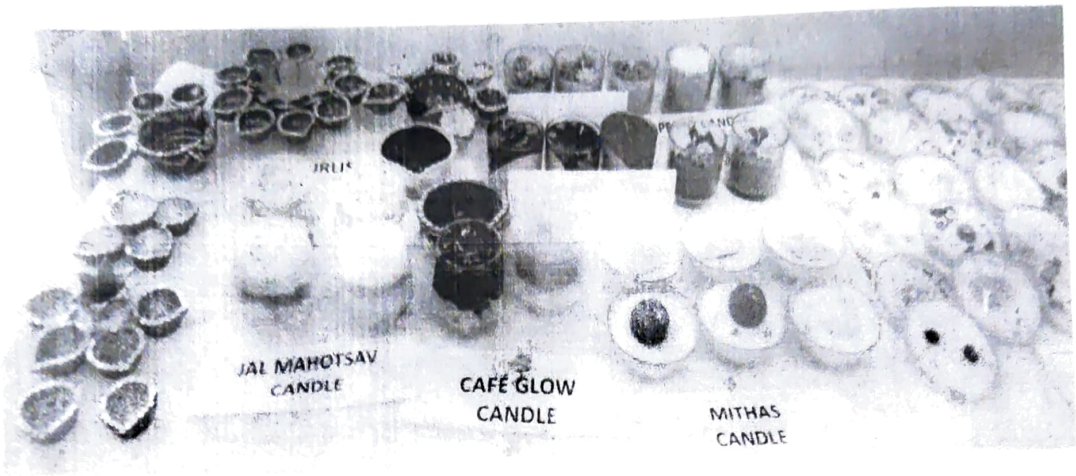

1. Preparation and setting up of the candle-making unit.

2. Preparation of decorative candles for Diwali.

3. Display of candles during the exhibition.

6. Conclusion

For Diwali festival the candle-making activity and exhibition-cum-sale organized under the Earn While You Learn Scheme was a successful and enriching experience for the students. It provided hands-on training in candle making, encouraged creativity, developed entrepreneurial skills, and created awareness about self-employment opportunities. The exhibition also offered students a platform to showcase and sell their handmade products, boosting their confidence and practical learning. Overall, the activity successfully promoted skill development, teamwork, and the spirit of entrepreneurship among students.

7. Newspaper Coverage

The successful organization of the candle sale was covered and published in the newspaper, highlighting the efforts of the college and students under the Earn While You Learn Scheme.
